

COMET SEKI-LINES

April 25, 1962.

Not visible in 7 x 50 binoculars, but was picked up with the 4" f5 reflector. It was a very poor night with mist and clouds. I could not estimate the position or magnitude, and no tail was visible. It was approx. $3\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ south of ϵ Aurigae.

Hugh N.A. Maclean

NIAGARA FALLS