

ROYAL ASTRONOMICAL SOCIETY OF CANADA

COMET AND NOVA SECTION

Announcement # 6. February 26, 1963

N O V A

A naked eye nova was discovered about 5 degrees N W of Vega, between Lyra and Hercules. Coordinates are (for epoch 1960):

R.A. 18h 13m, Dec. +41°50'

Magnitude was 4.1 on Feb 9, and was estimated by the undersigned at 5.3 on Feb 23. The nova is best placed in the morning sky, and it is circumpolar for observers north of latitude 48°N.

411 Brixton Ave. Jim Low
St. Lambert, P.Q. National Coordinator
Comet & Nova Section