

Kincardine May 23 1891

Dear Sir,

Yours of the 14th inst. to hand in due time. I am glad that my little sermon is so much appreciated by you, also I saw that my letter was read at your last meeting, as reported in the "mail".

As you have so very kindly offered to submit my name as corresponding member of your society, I will accept your proposal, to have my name submitted as corresponding member. Had I lived near Toronto, I should become an active member, but as I could not attend your meetings, I will be quite content with a lower position.

Thanking you for your very kind attention.

I am yours truly
James Warren
